Fall at Investors Title

Letter from Investors Title CEO Joe Crutchfield

If someone would have told me in March that business would be as great as it's been these past months, I don't think I would have believed them. Nonetheless, business has been very good and we are grateful for that.

We really are fortunate that we have such wonderful clients. So thanks for your business, your support, and also your cooperation during a year that has had a lot of twists and turns in the midst of a high volume of transactions ... CONTINUE READING

Welcome Our New Staff Attorney, David Large!

Before starting in his role as Staff Attorney, David Large has had a wide variety of work experience at Investors Title Company.

David graduated from DePauw University in 2014 with a degree in Economics and Philosophy. Thereafter, David worked at Investors Title in our production department as a title examiner before attending St. Louis University School of Law where he graduated in May 2019. While in law school, David was a member of the law clinic, the Competition Mock Trial Team as well as The American Inns of Court organization. In addition, David received the Academic Excellence Award in Land Use Law.

After receiving his J.D., David worked in private practice for a year in St. Louis primarily in the areas of estate planning, fiduciary and business litigation, and bankruptcy. In his spare time, David enjoys playing golf, horseback riding, and cooking.

We look forward to having David on our team!
