Letter from Investors Title CEO Joe Crutchfield

“Wisdom is gained through heartache, but knowledge comes from mistakes.” (Or something like that — I don’t know to whom to attribute the quote, maybe Ernest Hemingway?)

Anyway, I do believe it to be true that every mistake we make is a chance to learn something we didn’t know before. Any miscalculation or even a small clerical error that has consequences is unlikely to be repeated or forgotten ... CONTINUE READING

Meet Our Clayton Closing Team

Our Clayton closing team is experienced in helping clients through the complicated process of buying and selling their new homes. Their expertise and care for what they do translates into a seamless and efficient experience. We're thankful for their service to Investors Title and to our clients!

Coming Soon: Electronic Document Signatures

ITC is excited to announce that we are beta testing a new e-signing platform for documents that do not require a notary stamp/seal.

We look forward to being able to offer our continued excellent service while offering a more expedited closing experience, where clients can sign documents from the convenience of any location. Stay tuned more updates!

Featured ITC Team Member

Meet Laura Ditmeyer, closer at our Bluestone / St. Charles office!

Laura has nearly 20 years of experience at ITC, first starting as a receptionist in 2001. Soon, she was promoted to processing and closing and worked at a number of ITC offices before coming back to the Bluestone office where it all began. As a closer, Laura loves being able to build relationships with her clients (and their clients) during such an important milestone in their lives.

Outside of work, Laura enjoys spending time with her husband of 15 years and 12-year-old son.
